

Study Guide Hebrews Part 3

Share one place where you saw God at work in your life this past week.

Read Hebrews 2:5-18

The author is building an argument. In what ways does this passage echo themes about Christ's supremacy already expressed in Hebrews 1?

What new or further insights are being introduced here?

Why does the Bible picture sin in such stark terms as "slavery"?

Do we even need to be rescued from sin? Isn't it just a feature of the broken human condition we all live with to varying degrees?

Study Guide Hebrews Part 3

Share one place where you saw God at work in your life this past week.

Read Hebrews 2:5-18

The author is building an argument. In what ways does this passage echo themes about Christ's supremacy already expressed in Hebrews 1?

What new or further insights are being introduced here?

Why does the Bible picture sin in such stark terms as "slavery"?

Do we even need to be rescued from sin? Isn't it just a feature of the broken human condition we all live with to varying degrees?

Why do we fear death so much?

Why do we fear death so much?

Who are the “offspring of Abraham” the author says Jesus came to help?

Who are the “offspring of Abraham” the author says Jesus came to help?

What does it mean that Jesus was made perfect through suffering?
What sobering picture about the journey of faith and obedience does it present for us?

What does it mean that Jesus was made perfect through suffering?
What sobering picture about the journey of faith and obedience does it present for us?

What do we learn about who God is (nature and purpose) from this passage?

What do we learn about who God is (nature and purpose) from this passage?

What message of comfort and hope does it offer?

What message of comfort and hope does it offer?

How has your view of Christ been enlarged or changed by this passage?

How has your view of Christ been enlarged or changed by this passage?

Pray for one another.

Pray for one another.