

What should I bring?

- Sleeping bag
- Toiletries & Towel
- Rain gear (pants and coat)
- Winter coat/layers/gloves
- Tennis shoes & boots
- Bible, pen, notebook
- Water bottle
- Flashlight
- Clothes: socks, underwear, shirts, pants—various other garments
- Silly costume

Special request:

Once trip starts, please turn cell-phones to airplane mode. Cell-phones for some are alarms, bibles, flashlights—so it makes sense to bring them along. But the hope is the retreat will be a break from social media, texting and gaming. Phones used inappropriately may be confiscated for remainder of trip. Thanks for understanding.

What is it?

A 2 night multi-church retreat for youth from grades 8-12 on Keats Island (across from Gibsons) exploring how God has created us to relate to each other and God.

What will I encounter?

Night games, day games, food of all sorts, chill cabin time, wild and exciting cabin time, worship, devotions, new buds, service projects, workshops.

How can I come?

Register online at <https://www.olivet.bc.ca/ministries/made-to-relate> and submit $150 to a sponsor church by January 21, trip leaves from Horseshoe Bay Government Dock (6750 Keith Rd, W. Vancouver) at 5 on February 9 and returning 2:30

Winter Retreat 2017

“Made to Relate”

February 9th-11th
Keats Camps